This distinction is important when including this craft show in promotional literature and broadcast announcements. CCBFC does not engage in fundraising. Approval Process:

Prior to acceptance to the show, new crafters must submit photographs of their hand-crafted work, and if possible, their display to hollyandivycrafts@gmail.com.

Your Tables -- The craft items listed on your application must be displayed. Decisions regarding admission to the show and placement of crafts are made based on crafts and photographs supplied. Additions and changes may be made only with prior written request by the crafter and approval by The Holly & Ivy Committee. The committee reserves the right to limit the number of similar crafts.

NOTE: The Holly & Ivy Craft Village Show is a smoke free environment.

The committee reserves the right to prohibit the sales of crafts deemed objectionable. Remember, we are on Church and School grounds. Examples: toy weapons, horror characters, or crafts displaying offensive or objectionable words, pride-related items/symbols and any mystical/witchcraft items/symbols. If a committee member finds such item(s) on display, the item(s) must be removed immediately.

IMPORTANT: All items must be hand-crafted predominantly by the applicant. No commercial or flea market items allowed. Direct sales companies are not represented. Individual raffles are not permitted.

Crafter Placement -- The Committee reserves the right to place crafters in spaces that add to the quality of the show. Therefore, space placement may vary from year to year. We also have a limited number of spaces with electricity. The location of our outlets dictates the locations of those crafter spaces. Because we care about our crafters and their work, we diligently strive to create a floor plan that honors all participants. Tables and displays MAY NOT extend beyond the eight-foot (8') or (10') space limit. All tables should be attractively covered.

All crafters must obtain permission before moving ANY item that does not belong to them.

Please do not begin to take down your display until 2:00 PM on Saturday.

Liability-- Lehigh Christian Academy, The Holly & Ivy Committee Members and Cedar Crest Bible Fellowship Church are not responsible for any damage or loss due to fire, flooding, theft, possible emergency cancellation, or any other unexpected occurrence. However, you can rest assured that we take great care in overseeing and protecting your handcrafts to the best of our ability.

Show Promotion -- Postcards promoting this event are available for your use upon request. Your assistance in utilizing these postcards will work both towards your success and a good show turn-out. Additionally, we internally market the event on our social media platforms as well as emails and notifications to our immediate constituents at the school.

Door Prizes -- We welcome door prize donations from any crafter who desires to contribute. Please include your business card.

Refund Policy -- Cancellations must be made in writing and received at least 30 days prior to The Holly & Ivy Craft Village Show. Cancellations made after the 30-day window has expired will not be eligible for a refund. If for any reason, the show committee determines a need to cancel the craft show, all vendors will be refunded their money and/or another show date will be established (e.g., pandemic, natural disaster, weather, etc.).

Finally, come with high expectations! Bring a cheerful countenance.
Possess an attitude of flexibility. Together, let's enjoy a wonderful day!
